CONTENTS

FEATURES

Kachchh – A Recall

Kachchh has a special place on the ornithological map of India, as it is the entry and exit point for a number of migratory birds coming into India. After innumerable power-packed trips to this land of birds, Badruddin Ali wonders when its avian wonders will beckon him next.

Combating Invasive Alien Plant Species in Protected Areas: An Action Imperative

Invasive alien flora and fauna collectively rank among the top three threats to global biodiversity. Gopal S. Rawat recommends prompt and proactive action responses at the national level to save India's native biodiversity from these silent killers. Will the intervention be timely?

PHOTO FEATURE

Nature Watch in Suburbia

The global pandemic of 2020 gave us many opportunities, with time on our hands to follow our passion. V. Gopi Naidu took to photographing wildlife around his residence; he shares a few wonders that he captured in his camera.
