Guideline for Students about the submission of fees and progress report: -

1) Submission of Progress Report: - It is mandatory for all students to remain in touch periodically with the Guide as well as the BNHS University Study Department on the current status of their study and submit the progress report on every six months.

2) Fees: Student needs to pay appropriate fees including University and Society share at each time. Students also need to pay Ph.D. registration deposit along with other necessary payments. This amount will be refundable only after completing of Ph.D. course successfully or after completing necessary formalities for cancellation of the Ph.D. registration. Student can pay either a term fee (April-October and November-March) or the annual fees (April-March).

3) Failure to pay the fees: If any student of BNHS does not communicate with the Society and does not pay the fees of an academic year, the request letter for cancellation of Ph.D. registration of a particular student will be forwarded to the Thesis Section of the Mumbai University by the BNHS, with a copy to the student. Due payment of fees of such a student will be deducted from the deposit amount.

4) Extension for the submission of Ph.D. thesis: If any Ph.D. student of the BNHS will be unable to submit the thesis within allotted time of four years, he or she needs to apply for getting extension for the submission of the thesis providing valid reason for the delay and mentioning further time required. The application will be forwarded to the Mumbai University through BNHS with signature of guide and the Director, BNHS. After four years of Ph.D. registration accounts section of the Mumbai University will not accept the fees without the above-mentioned extension letter from the particular student.

5) Cancellation of Ph.D. Registration: If a student wants to cancel Ph.D. registration, he/she needs to send a written application, with valid reason for cancellation of Ph.D. registration which should be approved by his/her Guide and the Director, BNHS.

6) Responsibility of Guides and Students: For any queries like cancellation of Ph.D. registration, the guides and the students needs to communicate with the Mumbai University through the BNHS.

7) Important note: Students and guide need to keep a photocopy of each and every document which is submitted to the University/Society towards the Ph.D. course for record.
